

STEWARD SPEAKERS

Tracy Boyd is an Indiana native and committed advocate for education equality. After earning her bachelor's degree in Education from Martin University, Tracy worked as a technical support analyst for a pharmaceutical research company for more than a decade and later ran for public office in the City of Lawrence. She currently serves as the Vice President of the D

Driven by and focused on the need to serve her community and making a positive difference in the lives of my neighbors, Tracy is actively involved in a number of charitable organizations. She is committed to helping our youth become productive members of society as she believes there are priceless rewards in guiding youth to reach their goals.

Service and empowerment are two words that can be used to describe Tracy's adult life as a public servant. She has launched a voter registration education initiative project, "GET OUT AND VOTE "- #GOV2020, with one goal in mind, to register voters and provide general voter education. During the 2020 voting cycle, the initiative revealed the average voter is not aware of basic voter rights, insights and processes.